

David Bowie - Life On Mars?

```
Intro: D D D B7 Em D A A (2x)
          D
It's a God awful small affair
To the girl with the mousey hair
       D
But her mummy is yelling, "No!"
And her daddy has told her to go,
But her friend is no where to be seen.
Now she walks through her sunken dream
To the seats with the clearest view
And she's hooked to the silver screen,
                  Dm
But the film is sadd'ning bore
        Eb
For she's lived it ten times or more
        D7
She could spit in the eyes of fools
As they ask her to focus on
REFRÃO
Sailors fighting in the dance hall.
Fm
Oh man!
Look at those cavemen go.
                           B) Cm
                  Am (Am
It's the freakiest show.
Take a look at the lawman
           D Em
Beating up the wrong guy.
Em
Oh man!
Wonder if he'll ever know
                        Am (Am B ) Cm
He's in the best selling show.
```

Cm Em Eb D A solo: D Eb Em F Gbm G A

```
Is there life on Mars?
 It's on America's tortured brow
                                                                                B7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Em
 That Mickey Mouse has grown up a cow.
                                                      D
Now the workers have struck for fame % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(
  'Cause Lennon's on sale again.
                                               D
 See the mice in their million hordes
                                              B7
 From Ibeza to the Norfolk Broads.
 Rule Britannia is out of bounds
 To my mother, my dog, and clowns,
 But the film is a sadd'ning bore
  'Cause I wrote it ten times or more.
 It's about to be writ again
                                                    Bb
 As I ask you to focus on
REFRÃO
Sailors fighting in the dance hall.
Eb7
                                                                                                                                               D Dm
 Look at those cavemen go.
                                                                                                                        Am (Am B ) Cm
 It's the freakiest show.
 Take a look at the lawman
                                                                                                            D Em
Beating up the wrong guy.
Oh man!
Eb7
                                                                                                                                                D Dm
Wonder if he'll ever know
                                                                                                                                                        Am (Am B ) Cm
He's in the best selling show.
                                        Em Eb D A solo: D Eb Em F Gbm G A
 Is there life on Mars?
```

Acordes

