

David Bowie - Shes Got Medals

Tom: G

She's Got Medals by David Bowie (From "London Boy" and many other compilations of his pre-"Space Oddity" days)

F C G D A
F C G D A
A
She'd walk through the door and she'd set up the drinks on the house
A
She played a good game of darts, and the men slapped her back, never took her out.
A E
She wore a trenchcoat garkey(?), her hobnail boots were full of holes.
E A E7
She's got medals.
Her mother called her Mary but she changed her name to Tommy, she's a one.
She went and joined the army, passed the medical, don't ask me how it's done.
They sent her to the front line, fighting for her country's name
She's got medals.

B G
She got very tired of picking up girls,
C F
Cleaning her gun, and shaving her curls
Bb Eb C F C G D
A
Then the enemy dropped a bomb, survivors there were none!
F C G D
A
People say that when the moon is full and when the stars have gone to bed
F C G D
A
You can see a ghost but that's a lie because the naughty woman isn't dead.
Bm Gb Bm E
E A
E
She deserted on the previous morning, replaced her uniform with dresses silk and green
E A E E A E E A
E7
Called herself Eileen, came to London town, now she's settled down. She's got medals.
F C G D A F C G D A

Acordes