

David Bowie - Song For Bob Dylan

Tom: A
Intro: A Abm Gbm E A Abm Gbm B

A Abm
Ah hear this Robert Zimmerman
Gbm E
I wrote a song for you
A Abm
About a strange young man called Dylan
Gbm E
With a voice like sand and glue
Abm Dbm
Some words had truthful vengeance
B A
That could pin us to the floor
Gbm Abm
Brought a few more people on
A B
And put the fear in a whole lot more

Refrão:
A D A
Ah here she comes here she comes here she comes again
E
That same old painted lady
E
From the brow of the superbrain
Gbm
She'll scratch this world to pieces
G
As she comes on like a friend
A
But a couple of songs from your old scrap book
E
Could send her home again

A Abm
You gave your heart to every bedsit room
Gbm E
At least a picture on the wall
A Abm
And you sat behind a million pair of eyes
Gbm E
And told them how they saw
Abm Dbm
Then we lost your train of thought
B A
Your paintings are all your own
Gbm
While troubles are rising
Abm A B
We'd rather be scared together than alone

A Abm
Now hear this Robert Zimmerman
Gbm E
Though I don't suppose we'll meet
A Abm
Ask your good friend Dylan
Gbm E
If he'd gaze a while down the old street
Abm Dbm
Tell him we've lost his poems
B A
So we're writing on the walls
Gbm Abm
Give us back our unity
A B
Give us back our family
Gbm Abm
You're every nations refugee
A B
Don't leave us with our sanity

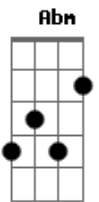

Refrão:

But a couple of songs from your old scrap book
