

David Bowie - Watch That Man

tom:

Intro: G Cadd9 Em A
G Cadd9 Em A

A
Shakey threw a party that lasted all night
D
Everybody drank a lot of something nice
E
There was an old fashioned band of married men
Gbm
Looking up to me for encouragement - it was so-so
A
The ladies looked bad but the music was sad
D
No one took their eyes off Lorraine
E
She shimmered and she strolled like a Chicago moll
Gbm
Her feathers looked better and better - it was so-so

D A
Yea! it was time to unfreeze
B D
When the Reverend Alabaster danced on his knees
D A
Slam! so it wasn't a game
E
Cracking all the mirrors in shame

A D G G D Cadd9
Watch that man! Oh honey, watch that man
D C
He talks like a jerk but he could eat you
G
With a fork and spoon
A D G C
Watch that man! Oh honey, watch that man
D C
He walks like a jerk, but he's only taking
B
Care of the room
C
Must be in tune

(G Cadd9 Em A)
(G Cadd9 Em A)

A
A Benny Goodman fan painted holes in his hands
D
So Shakey hung him up to dry
E
The pundits were joking
The manholes were smoking and every bottle battled
Gbm
With the reason why
A
The girl on the phone wouldn't leave me alone
D
A throw back from someone's LP
E
A lemon in a bag played the Tiger Rag
Gbm
And the bodies on the screen stopped bleeding
D A
Yeah! I was shaking like a leaf
B D
For I couldn't understand the conversation
D A E
Yeah! I ran to the street, looking for information
A D G C
Watch that man! Oh honey, watch that man
D C
He talks like a jerk but he could eat you
G
With a fork and spoon
A D G C
Watch that man! Oh honey, watch that man
D C
He walks like a jerk, but he's only
B
Taking care of the room
C
Must be in tune

Acordes

