

David Byrne - God Draws Straight

tom:
 G
 As I left my house, as I walked out today
 Am B
 Thought I walked out my marriage. Thought I walked out on grace
 G Am C D
 As the dawn it was breaking at the end of the street
 Am C
 I didn't know what would happen, didn't know what I'd see
 G B
 I saw two transit buses blocked the road on our side
 Am Cm
 Saw a couple of joggers who chanced to run by
 G Gm C D
 Saw some soldiers come out and they mixed with the crowd
 Am Cm
 Tears came to my eyes we're just walking around

Chorus
 G D C G D C
 And there're so many people - Everybody is here!
 G D C G
 I saw the girls from the office
 D C
 I saw those guys from the street
 G B
 You might think you are lost, but then you will find
 Em C G D G C G D
 That god draws straight, but with crooked lines

Verse 2
 G B
 I saw a matron in white, her face lifted to heaven
 Am Cm
 Saw nuns on their knees and some who were weeping
 G Am C D
 Saw a middle-aged man and government clerk
 Am C
 An Afromestizo held his rosary up
 G B
 I saw nobody leave, I didn't feel fear or terror
 Am Cm
 It felt like a movie, like the end of an era
 G Am C D
 Nobody got hurt and nobody died

Am Cm
 I'll remember this day, I'll remember this time
 Chorus
 G D C G D C
 And there're so many people - Everybody is here!
 G D C G
 I saw the girls from the office
 D C
 I saw those guys from the street
 G B
 You might think you are lost, but then you will find
 Em C G D G C G D
 That god draws straight, but with crooked lines

Verse 3
 G B
 As I turned on my walkman, and all I could hear -
 Am Cm
 Every station was Marcos, he's on every TV
 G Am C D
 An appliance store window he fills every screen
 Am C
 Then the TVs went blank and his face disappeared
 G
 Then the darkness it thickened
 B
 There was no time for choices
 Am Cm
 Half blind I ran, I was guided by voices
 G Am C D
 When the choppers took off leaving Malacañang
 Am Cm
 We knew it was over knew it was the end

Chorus
 G D C G D C
 And there're so many people - Everybody is here!
 G D C G
 I saw the girls from the office
 D C
 I saw those guys from the street
 G B
 You might think you are lost, but then you will find
 Em C G D G C G
 That god draws straight, but with crooked lines
 Em C G D G
 Yea, god draws straight, but with crooked lines
