

David Fonseca - Broken (We'll Fade Into It All)

Tom: F

(com acordes na forma de E)
 Capotraste na 1ª casa
 Intro: E

It's in your eyes
 An absent stare that cries again

I don't know why
 You take it out

You take it out on me again

And you fear that
 When it breaks down, that I can't take the fall

I'm already broken
 I'm broken, you can't hurt me at all

(E)

So let it all come down now

Let it all pour down
 Just let it go

Just throw it all on me now

You wanna drown me

You wanna show me, how your world feels

My world was already broken

It was broken, before I let you in

(E)

So go ahead and burn me down

Just burn me down in the fire

The flames, the flames are getting higher

In the end

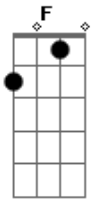

We'll lay and sleep, as the ashes fall

We, we will be broken

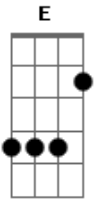

Broken, we'll fade into it all
