

David Gilmour - The Girl In The Yellow Dress

```
Intro: Riff do baixo
Am D7 Am7
She mesmerizes with a smile
Dark eyes as compelling as the bourbon
Am D7 Am7
That girl in the canary yellow dress
Says yes
Am D7 Am7
She flips a pack of cigarettes
He doesn't smoke, but he takes one nonetheless
Am D7 Am7
                         F7
It helps to keep his motives true, the girl was blue
   F7
What else is the poor boy supposed to do
Dm Dm7
        Dm7 Dm
She bounces like a flame,
Am7
    A7
clothes on her
Dm Dm7 Dm7
               Dm
Eyes closed Yellow dress
Gb7 F7
Runs and swirls
Am D7
           Am7
It's late, the hour's growing horns
```

```
The band seems to draw her ever closer
Am D7
        Am7
This girl gets right down in the groove, grooves a move
F7
Leads him out to where they play the blues
Dm Dm7
          Dm7
She dances like a flame
Am7
            Α7
Has no cares, yellow-dressed flame
Dm Dm7 Dm7 Dm
Eyes closed, arms above
  Gb7
She shakes pearls and snakes
Bbm Bbm7M
                Bbm7
Too late in this folie a troix
Ebm7
                 Ebm
He sees that the heart is pounding for
Bbm Bbm7M Bbm7
                              Gb7
Big daddy who falls down to his knees, begging her please
Lifts his sax, says "here's my little tease"
Ebm Ebm7M Ebm7
Her dancing sets the place on fire
          Bh7
Heaven and hell
Ebm Ebm7M Ebm7 Ebm
The flames come up his spine
     F7
                        Gb7
As she shakes, whirls and snakes
```

Acordes

