Tom: E

(com acordes na forma de C)

Capostrate na 4ª casa

Intro: F G Am C F

Verse 1:

F G Seger was singing words I could believe in Am
 And Main Street was my street that night.
 F G
 So I called up Samantha and asked her the change of running out neath the moonlight.
 C G
 Though she's not with me now, she can always be found
 Am C
 when i rewind the radio dial. And like it was then,
 F G
 I'll feel her on my skin, and I'm back there for a while.

Chorus:

C F
 So I labor for hours cause I know the power of a song
 G C
 when a song hits you right. Pour my soul into stories of life, F G C hoping someone'll hear one tonight. Maybe my voice 'll cut
 F through the noise and stir up an old memory. And out of these G
 piano keys, come's the sound... the sound of a million dreams.

Verse 2:

F G Am
 My 18th summer I was a cocky up-and-comer cranking up "Born to Run."

F G
 Turned left out the drive with the pistons open wide and I Am C G came back a prodigal son. My spirit was broken, she threw the door open,

Am C
 "I love you" not "I told you so." When I hear "Mama Cried," I still

F G
 break down and cry and pull to the side of the road.

Chorus:

C F
 So I labor for hours cause I know the power of a song
 G C
 when a song hits you right. Pour my soul into stories of life, F G C hoping someone'll hear one tonight. Maybe my voice 'll cut
 F
 through the noise and stir up an old memory. And out of these G
 piano keys, come's the sound... the sound of a million dreams.

(F C Am G)(x2)

Chorus:

C F
 So I labor for hours cause I know the power of a song
 G C
 when a song hits you right. Pour my soul into stories of life, F G C
 hoping someone'll hear one tonight. Maybe my voice 'll cut
