

David Ruis - Rest In His Promise

Tom: E

When the sun's brightly shining, and it's Touching my face
 And Your favor is resting, and it seems all is grace
 I will lift up my eyes and give glory to Your name
 And I'll rest in Your promise over me
 When the sunlight has faded, and the darkness?
 My friend
 And the sorrows are rolling, and the suffering
 Just won't end
 I will lift up my eyes and give glory to Your name
 And I'll rest in Your promise over me
 And I'll rest in Your promise over me
 When the wars and the rumors are encircling the earth
 And Your judgements are falling, and there's no

Where to turn
 I will lift up my eyes and give glory to Your name
 And I'll rest in Your promise over me
 [Solo]
 You are sovereign, Lord
 You are holy, Lord
 You are faithful, Lord
 I will rest
 When the heaven's are opened, and You ride like
 The wind
 And Your kingdom of justice, it will come without end
 I will lift up my eyes and give glory to Your name
 And I'll rest in Your promise over me
 I'll rest in Your promise
