

Dead By Sunrise - In The Darkness

Tom: C

m [Intro] Cm Ab Cm

I want to cut through my skin

And pull you within

My heart burns like the sun

As our flesh becomes one

In the darkness, my heart aches at the sight of you

Trembles and quakes within sight of you

In the darkness

Our bodies burning, tides are turning, somehow stopping time

What is becoming of my heart and mind?

In the darkness, all that you want from me is all I have to give

In the darkness, coming so easily, learning how to live

In the darkness, all that you want from me is all I have to give

In the darkness, coming so easily, learning how to live

(Ab Cm)

I will surrender my soul

And give you control

Make me a martyr for love

Till the habits abide?

In the darkness, my heart aches at the sight of you

Trembles and quakes within sight of you

In the darkness

Our bodies burning, tides are turning, somehow stopping time

What is becoming of my heart and mind?

In the darkness, all that you want from me is all I have to give

In the darkness, coming so easily, learning how to live

In the darkness, all that you want from me is all I have to give

In the darkness, coming so easily, learning how to live

(Bb Ab Bb Cm)

In the darkness, all that you want from me is all I have to give

In the darkness, coming so easily, learning how to live

In the darkness, all that you want from me is all I have to give

In the darkness, coming so easily, learning how to live
