Tom: Ab

This is originally played on a piano so it can be kinda tricky to jump up and down on fretboard at some points. If you find any errors, please point them out to me and i will them. Thanks.
Intro:

Verse

You may tire of me as our December sun is setting
'Cause I'm not who I used to be

No longer easy on the eyes
These wrinkles masterfully disguise
The youthful boy below who turned your way and saw Something he was not looking for Both a beginning and an end

But now he lives inside someone he does not recognize
When he catches his reflection on accident

Verse 2

On the back of a motor bike
With your arms outstretched trying to take flight
Leaving everything behind

But even at our swiftest speed
We couldn't break from the concrete
In the city where we still reside

And I have learned
That even landlocked lovers yearn
For the sea like navy men

'Cause now we say goodnight
From our own separate sides
Like brothers on a hotel bed

Like brothers on a hotel bed

Like brothers on a hotel bed
