

Death Cab For Cutie - Little Bribes

Tom: E

Riff 1:

Intro: 3x: E E

Verso 1:

The Eiffel Tower built to smaller scale E E
 The freshest oxygen I'd ever inhale E A
 I tapped a bottle against the safety rail killing time E E E

Verso 2:

And you were like a walking compliment E E
 Tall in stature and exceptionally read E A
 In dummy glasses and a cardigan, oh, come on E E E (riff 1)

And oh so empty were the faces of the dealers and the waitresses around G A

Verso 3:

You said that all these things you've learned to ignore
 The hidden cameras on the casino floor
 And what gets paid for behind hotel doors, oh, come on
 Pretend every slot machine is a robot amputee waving hello

(Riff 1) G
 The people stare into their eyes
 And they feed them little bribes and then they go E E E

Interludio 3x: E E

Ponte:

The never-ending twilight Gbm Ab Gbm
 In a basement where the sun has never spilt Dbm B Gbm
 You said that you were lonely Ab
 And then we kissed like lonely people do Dbm B Gbm E E E E E

Verso 4:

You said this city has a beating heart
 That pushes people down the boulevard
 And they're all hoping for a wish fulfilled
 In a desert for a dollar bill
 Those foolish dreams, you know they plague me still, oh, come on
 And oh so empty were the faces of the dealers and the waitresses around
 And oh so empty were the faces of the dealers and the waitresses around

Outro:

(Riff 1) Dbm Ab A E Gbm E
