

Death Cab For Cutie - Title And Registration

Tom: G

Em G C
The glove compartment, isn't accurately named,
C

And everybody knows it.

Em G C
So I'm proposing, a swift orderly change.

Em G D C
Cause behind its door there's nothing to keep my fingers warm,

Em G D C
And all I find, are souvenirs from better times.

Em G D C
Before the gleam, of your taillights fading east,

Em G D C
To find, yourself a better life.

Em G C C

Em G C
I was searching, for some legal document,
C

As the rain beat down on the hood.

Em G C
When I stumbled upon, pictures I tried to forgeeeeeet,

Em G C
And that's how this idea, was drilled into my head.

Em G C
Cause it's too important, to stay the way it's been.

Em G D C
There's no blame, for how our love did slowly fade,

Em G D C
And now that it's gone, it's like it wasn't there at all.

Em G D C
And here I rest, where disappointment and regret,

G collide

D C
Lying awake at night.
