Em G C
 The glove compartment, isn't accurately named,
 C
 And everybody knows it.
 Em G C
 So I'm proposing, a swift orderly change.

G D C
 Cause behind its door there's nothing to keep my fingers warm,
 G D C
 And all I find, are souvenirs from better times.
 G D C
 Before the gleam, of your taillights fading east,
 G D C
 To find, yourself a better life.

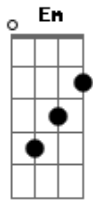

Em G C C

Em G C
 I was searching, for some legal document,
 C
 As the rain beat down on the hood.
 Em G C
 When I stumbled upon, pictures I tried to forgeeeeeet,
 Em G C
 And that's how this idea, was drilled into my head.
 Em G C
 Cause it's too important, to stay the way it's been.
 G D C
 There's no blame, for how our love did slowly fade,
 G D C
 And now that it's gone, it's like it wasn't there at all.
 G D C
 And here I rest, where disappointment and regret,
 G collide
 D C
 Lying awake at night.
