[Primeira Parte]

Great snakes, are we moving already?

Good gravy, did you say it cost a penny or two for you?

We're talking 'bout the bad starts

My baby brother has already got a gas mask

'Cause it's a good old-fashioned landslide

Killin' with your hands tied

In the homemade road, set sail

Babe, we read it in The Mail, no hope now

[Refrão]

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting, it's good what you tell 'em

Great Britain won't stand for felons

Great British bombs in the Yemen

[Segunda Parte]

Why... does it seem

A fever dream... for all?

The call you made to me

You said I'll feel

One day each year, a worry

We shall remember the dead

And we'll remember the dead so they know that we're sorry

But then carry on

[Refrão]

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting, it's great what you tell 'em

Great Britain won't stand for felons

Great British bombs in the Yemen

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting, it's great what you tell 'em

Great Britain won't stand for felons

Great British bombs in the Yemen

(Gb)

[Verse 3]

How could it be the money? It's the vote that matters to me

You say you're hungry, but you won't eat the caraway seed

Doesn't matter in the wreckage, what should you say?

Well, I found myself a little peckish last Tuesday

This is what you signed up for, no questions

Reckon we could offer peace, damn the weapons conventions

Well, it's on the table, but it's no good, can't you hear

All our worries for fear, carry on

[Refrão]

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting, it's great what you tell 'em

Great Britain won't stand for felons

Great British bombs in the Yemen

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting, it's great what you tell 'em

Great Britain won't stand for felons

Great British bombs in the Yemen

(Gb)

[Ponte]

Killing with your hands tied

In the homemade road, set sail

Babe, we read it in The Mail, no hope now

And it's a total fucking whitewash

The people that we might squash

And move from home soil, set sail

For wherever the fuck got oil this time

And getting so much worse

Get real, kid, your country's been at war since birth now

And if it's not a fucking outrage, what's it all about then?

Now, it's one on one

Great Britain's gonna tell you where it all went wrong and then carry on

[Refrão]

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting as well, what you tell 'em

Great Britain won't stand for felons

Great British bombs in the Yemen

Great way to fool me again, hun

Great acting as well, what you tell 'em

Abm

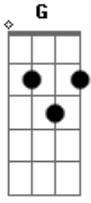

Great Britain won't stand for felons
