

Deep Purple - Strange kind of woman

tom: C

[Primeira Parte]

B A E B
There once was a woman, a strange kind of woman
B A E B
The kind that gets written down in history
B A E B
Her name was Nancy, her face was nothing fancy
A E B
She left a trail of happiness and misery

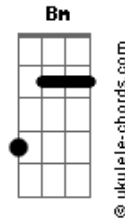

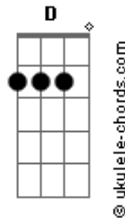

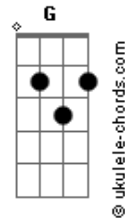

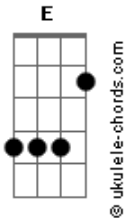

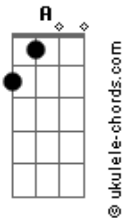

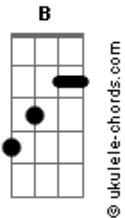

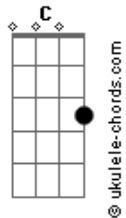

[Segunda Parte]

B A E B
I loved her, everybody loved her
A E B
She loved everyone and gave a good return
B A E B
I tried to take her, I even tried to break her
A E B
She said I ain't for taking won't you ever learn

[Refrão]

B A E B
I want you, I need you, I gotta be near you
A E B
I spend my money as I took my turn
B A E B
I want you, I need you, I gotta be near you

Acordes

A E B
Oh! I got a strange kind of woman

[Terceira Parte]

B A E B
She looked like a raver, but I could never please her
A E B
On wednesday mornings boy you cant go far
B A E B
I couldn't get her, but things got better (she said)
A E B
Saturday night from now on baby your my star

[Refrão]

G D A Bm
Ohhh... Ohhh
G D A Bm
Ohhh... Ohhh
A E
My soul I love you

[Refrão]

B A E B
She finally said she loved me, I wed her in a hurry
A E B
No more callers and I glowed with pride
B A E B
Ah! I'm dreaming, I feel like screaming
A E B
I won my woman just before she died