

Deep Purple - Strange kind of woman

tom:

C

[Primeira Parte]

There once was a woman, a strange kind of woman
 The kind that gets written down in history
 Her name was Nancy, her face was nothing fancy
 She left a trail of happiness and misery

[Segunda Parte]

I loved her, everybody loved her
 She loved everyone and gave a good return
 I tried to take her, I even tried to break her
 She said I ain't for taking won't you ever learn

[Refrão]

I want you, I need you, I gotta be near you
 I spend my money as I took my turn
 I want you, I need you, I gotta be near you

Oh! I got a strange kind of woman

[Terceira Parte]

She looked like a raver, but I could never please her
 On wednesday mornings boy you cant go far
 I couldn't get her, but things got better (she said)
 Saturday night from now on baby your my star

[Refrão]

Ohhh... Ohhh
 Ohhh... Ohhh
 My soul I love you

[Refrão]

She finally said she loved me, I wed her in a hurry
 No more callers and I glowed with pride
 Ah! I'm dreaming, I feel like screaming
 I won my woman just before she died
