

Deep Purple - The Surprising

Tom: G
Intro:

But I could not control that trembling feeling
 Everything I want is slipping by
 And when the devil took my hand and said
 Something you should see
 I never knew what happened to my nightmare
 Everything went dark that August day
 And the eclipse was on the other side of somewhere
 But I was on the upside of afraid
 [Chorus 3]
 And then an angel took my hand and said
 Come along with me
