

Delain - Tell Me, Mechanist

Tom: A
Intro: B G

A Gbm B G
Tell me, mechanist, is it true?
A Gbm
Does none of it bother you?

B A Gbm
B A Gbm
B A Gbm

D
Once upon a time
Upon a time behind us
The mechanist inclined
Clockworks of time define us
Who you are, who you are
Merely springs that tick
The time of things away

B
The cry from the beast is just the noise
Of a spring that you have touched
A Gbm
Not a human: Not a voice

Db A B
If only we could go back to the start (tell me, mechanist, is it true?)
Db A B Ab
We would see we're not that far apart (does none of it bother you?)
Db A B
Realize the likeness of our hearts
A
If we could go back
Gbm
We could go back

B G
One and the same
A
Likely to one another
G
But the mechanist inclined
B Gbm
Merely our kind can suffer
A E G A
Who you are, who you are
G
Does it justify
A

Pleasing your palate
E
With the other's blood?

B
Tell me why, have the writings on the wall
Nor the dawn of DNA

A Gbm
Changed a single thing at all?

Db A B
If only we could go back to the start (tell me, mechanist, is it true?)

Db A B Ab
We would see we're not that far apart (does none of it bother you?)

Db A B
Realize the likeness of our hearts

A
If we could go back

Gbm Abm
We could go back
B Db
to the start

B
Closing collision:
The end of our divide

A
Savor the flavor of our ancestry rites

B
Closing collision:
We'll realize in time
A B
No opposition

We're genetically entwined
