E Abm Gb

The obstacles in sight should never have the right to be part of the problem

E Abm Gb

But even if we tried, we'd hardly have the time to spend in living our lives right

E Abm Gb

Don't say that I could change, cuz even if you stayed we'd still be climbing up this mountain

E Abm Gb

So let us go our ways and skip out all the pain, and forget all the

E Gb Abm

Bricks we've laid into this path yet the house remains undone

E Gb Abm

Flooding at every cloud, and withering in the sun

E Gb Abm

How's one meant to grow when walls keep caving in

The ceiling above us, has denied it's existence in

E Gb Abm Abm

Bridges built for better days but they won't hold our weight

E Gb Abm Abm

The ropes have been wearing thin, and tangling in the wind

E Gb Abm Abm

How's one meant to grow when walls keep caving in

The ceiling above us, has denied it's existence in

E Abm Gb

Oh! Of all the times we tried, I've still been up all night writing songs of you

E Abm Gb

And even though you're gone they will still live on in a memory or two

E Abm Gb E

Of all the streets I see, no one will ever be comparable to you

E Abm Gb

So with these words I go, I just wanted you to know, that my dreams are still of you
