

Demi Lovato - CITY OF ANGELS

```
Come make my day and rock my world by tom:
                                                                        Db
                                                                               Ab A
                                                           Christening the City of Angels (Angels)
Intro: E Db Ab A
                                                                       Db Ab A
                                                           Show it to me from every angle (angle)
Been here for fifteen years
                                                             E Db
 Ab
                                                           I wanna see Beverly on my knees
I'm bored to tears, there's nothing left to do
                                                               Ab
E Db
This town is heaven-sent
                                                           I want you to make me scream at the Roxy
                                                           E Db Ab
Ab A E
The better when I'm facedown under you
                                                           Christening the City of Angels
                                                           A E Db Ab
City of Angels (ooh, ooh, ooh)
Db Ab A E Before they go and write my eulogy Ab A
                                                           A E Db A
The City of Angels (ooh, ooh, ooh)
Come make this place new to me by ( E Db Ab A )
( E Db Ab A )
            Db Ab A
Christening the City of Angels (Angels)
E Db Ab A
Show it to me from every angle (angle)
                                                           Got me screamin', ayo (ayo)
 E Db
                                                            Ab A
                                                           On Rodeo ('deo)
I wanna see Beverly on my knees
    Ab A
I want you to make me scream at the Roxy
                                                           Got me screamin', ayo (ayo)
E Db Ab
Christening the City of Angels
                                                           Ab A
On Rodeo ('deo)
A E Db Ab
City of Angels (ooh, ooh, ooh)
A E Db A
                                                           The City of Angels (ooh, ooh, ooh)
                                                           Show it to me from every angle (angle)
( E )
                                                                   E Db
                                                           I wanna see Beverly on my knees
                                                              Ab A
Splash Mountain from your hands at Disneyland
                                                           I want you to make me scream at the Roxy
                                                                  Db Ab
                                                           Christening the City of Angels
You know I skip the lines
  Db
                                                            A E Db Ab
                                                           City of Angels (ooh, ooh, ooh)

A E Db A

The City of Angels (ooh, ooh, ooh)
I'm going down on you at the Viper Room
At Saddle Ranch I'll ride
                                                                 E Db G A
                                                           City of angels
You call me they, but I'm still daddy's girl
  Db Ab
                  Α
Acordes
     Ε DЬ
                       ukulele-chords.com
```