

Demi Lovato - Dancing With The Devil

tom:

Intro: Am G D F

It's just a little red wine
I'll be fine

Not like I wanna do this
Every night

I've been good, don't I deserve it?
I think I earned it

Feels like it's worth it
In my mind, mind

Twisted reality, hopeless insanity
I told you I was okay but I was lying

I was dancing with the devil
Out of control

Almost made it to heaven
It was closer than you know

Playing with the enemy
Gambling with my soul

It's so hard to say no
When you're dancing with the devil

Mmm
Yeah, yeah

It's just a little white line
I'll be fine

But soon that little white line
Is a little glass pipe

Tin foil remedy, almost got
The best of me

I keep prayin' I don't reach
The end of my lifetime mmm

Twisted reality, hopeless insanity

I told you I was okay
But I was lying

I was dancing with the devil
Out of control

Almost made it to heaven
It was closer than you know

Playing with the enemy
Gambling with my soul

It's so hard to say no
When you're dancing with the devil

Thought I knew my limit, yeah
I thought that I could quit it, yeah

I thought that I could walk away easily
But here I am falling down on my knees

Prayin' for better days to come
And wash this pain away

Could you please forgive me?
Lord, I'm sorry for dancing with the devil

Oh yeah, yeah

Dancing with the devil
Out of control (Yeah)

Almost made it to heaven
It was closer than you know

(Closer than you know)
Playing with the enemy (Oh)

Gambling with my soul
(Woah, woah)

It's so hard to say no
When you're dancing with the devil

Mmm, yeah, yeah
Mmm
