

Depeche Mode - Sister Of Night

Tom: G

Sister of night
 When the hunger descends
 And your body's a fire
 An inferno that never ends
 An eternal flame
 That burns in desire's name

 Sister of night
 When the longing returns
 Giving voice to the flame
 Calling you through flesh that burns
 Breaking down your will
 To move in for the kill

 Oh, sister, come for me; embrace me; assure me
 Hey, sister, I feel it too
 Sweet sister just feel me; I'm trembling, you heal me
 Hey, sister, I feel it too

Sister of night
 In your saddest dress
 As you walk through the light
 You're desperate to impress
 So you slide to the floor
 Feeling insecure

 Sister of night
 With the loneliest eyes
 Tell yourself it's alright
 He'll make such a perfect prize
 But the cold light of day
 Will give the game away

 Oh, sister, come for me; embrace me; assure me
 Hey, sister, I feel it too
 Sweet sister just feel me; I'm trembling, you heal me
 Hey, sister, I feel it too
