

Dermot Kennedy - Glory

Tom: B

m [Intro] Bm G D A

Bm G
For all the moments never known

?Cause he stepped off of the tallest sail D
For all the love he?d left below A
In the waves

Bm G
He made his peace with letting go D
Said some things he?d never dared to say A
The one the lighthouse left alone
Never saved

?Till a set of eyes had pinned him G
Became his version of a kingdom Bm A
Now I know they?ll never hunt me G
When she?s singing to me ?glory? Bm

A G
And a hopeful rhythm woke within him
She?s singing to me ?glory? Bm
Had some letters written, ?course she?s in ?em A G
She?s singing to me ?glory? Bm
Tried to tell her, throat was linen A G
She?s singing to me ?glory? Bm

A G
I was only ever thinking about you, you know
She?s singing to me glory Bm A

Bm G
They found a letter that he wrote D
He said ?it?s best off if we burn the page? A
I wrote it very long ago
In different days

Bm G
I guess I?m tired of talk of hope D
I?ve learned that doves and ravens fly the same (fly the same) G
But suddenly she?s all I know Bm A

An old refrain

?Till a set of eyes had pinned him Bm
Became his version of a kingdom D
Now I know they?ll never hunt me G
When she?s singing to me ?glory? Bm

A G
And a hopeful rhythm woke within him
She?s singing to me ?glory? Bm
Had some letters written, ?course she?s in ?em A G
She?s singing to me ?glory? Bm
Tried to tell her, throat was linen A G
She?s singing to me ?glory? Bm

A G
I was only ever thinking about you, you know
She?s singing to me ?glory? (oh) Bm A
