

Dermot Kennedy - Glory

Tom: B

m [Intro] Bm G D A

Bm G
For all the moments never known

A D
?Cause he stepped off of the tallest sail

A
For all the love he?d left below

In the waves

Bm G
He made his peace with letting go

D
Said some things he?d never dared to say

The one the lighthouse left alone

Never saved

G
?Till a set of eyes had pinned him

Bm A
Became his version of a kingdom

G
Now I know they?ll never hunt me

Bm
When she?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
And a hopeful rhythm woke within him

Bm
She?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
Had some letters written, ?course she?s in ?em

Bm
She?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
Tried to tell her, throat was linen

Bm
She?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
I was only ever thinking about you, you know

Bm A
She?s singing to me glory

Bm G
They found a letter that he wrote

D
He said ?it?s best off if we burn the page?

A
I wrote it very long ago

In different days

Bm G
I guess I?m tired of talk of hope

D
I?ve learned that doves and ravens fly the same (fly the same)

A
But suddenly she?s all I know

An old refrain

Bm
?Till a set of eyes had pinned him

D
Became his version of a kingdom

G
Now I know they?ll never hunt me

Bm
When she?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
And a hopeful rhythm woke within him

Bm
She?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
Had some letters written, ?course she?s in ?em

Bm
She?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
Tried to tell her, throat was linen

Bm
She?s singing to me ?glory?

A G
I was only ever thinking about you, you know

Bm A
She's singing to me ?glory? (oh)

(G Bm A)
(G Bm A)

(Glory)

(G Bm A G)

I was only ever thinking about you, you know

Bm A
Singing to me ?glory?

G
?Till a set of eyes had pinned him

Bm A
Became his version of a kingdom

G
She?s everything the devil can?t be

Bm A
When she?s singing to me ?glory?

G
?Till a set of eyes had pinned him

Bm A
Became his version of a kingdom

G
She?s everything the devil can?t be

Bm A
When she?s singing to me ?glory?

(G Bm A)
(G Bm A)

(Glory)

G Bm A
She?s singing to me ?glory?

Bm A
Singing to me ?glory?
