Tom: F

F
Maybe it's all down to the thought of her
G
Maybe it's all down to the loss we learned Am F
F
Knew for a long time, for all it's worth G
Am
I wanted to run to you
F
What if I'm caught up on it's me you're calling Am
G
What if I'm lost now, plus if demons come in F
G
When she kissed me I felt a new freedom or something (well) Am F
Move on

F
G
I found a moment to be brave, so I let her know Am

And she said: How could I love you back F
You who dropped your dreams in the gutter

In my winter, she'll be burning slow G
Feels like December knows me well

Am F G Am
'Cause I loved ya
F
Does that mean nothing to you now? G Am
I loved ya G Am
F
Get me back on homely ground Am
F
G Am
She said: Oh I know that love is all about the wind F
G Am
How it can hold me up and kill me in the end F G Am
Still I loved it F
Does that mean nothing to you now? Em

F
Days when we all watched 'till we lost the birds G Am
G
Threw a rose in, 'till it caught the turn F
F
Knew it felt right, we were bound to burn G C
I wanted to run to you F
G
Maybe I've lost count of the rooms you're tall in C
F
Maybe I've lost count of the nighttime all ins
G
So the trees and her were first to know

It'll all be good, just hold me well

Am F G Am
'Cause I loved ya
F
Does that mean nothing to you now? G Am
F
I loved ya G Am
F
Get me back on homely ground G Am
F
G Am
She said: Oh I know that love is all about the wind F

Wasn't easy to go, I know Am

You shouldn't have no seat in the front row Am G
I know, I know F Am
Wasn't easy to go, I know G
And the sun came out, day late though Am G
I know, I know F Am
Wasn't easy to go, I know G
He pulled up, flat tyres, ten spokes Am G
I know I know F Am
Wasn't easy to go, I know G
He came all that way just to say hello Am
I know, I know

Am F G Am
'Cause I loved ya

Does that mean nothing to you now? G Am
