

Devendra Banhart - Noah

Tom: G

(intro)

Not everyone can relate, to what you and i appreciate
 Not everyone can relate, to what you and i appreciate
 To what you and i appreciate
 Noah is a cowboy but nobody knows
 His cattle's on that hillside still nobody knows

Not everyone can relate, to what you and i appreciate
 Not everyone can relate, to what you and i appreciate
 To what you and i appreciate
 But i know you'd like to ride away but it's hard with horseshoes made of clay
 And the selfish friend that i am says stay
 My friend, my friend, my friend, my friend
