

Dick Dale - Belo Horizonte

Tom: A

Can I tell you I love you
 On the words that I write
 I really want to hold you
 In my arms through the night
 You're so far away
 I long for your touch
 To hold and to kiss you
 Am I asking too much?

Oh my belo horizonte
 You're the only light I see
 My belo horizonte
 You're the only one for me
 Oh belo horizonte
 Please come back to me
 My heart cries belo belo
 You're the only one for me

Oh my belo
 Please come back to me
 Oh you know how I feel
 Please come back to me

Oh my belo horizonte
 You're the only light I see

My heart cries belo belo
 You're the only one for me
 You're the only love for me

Can I tell you I want you
 On the words that I write
 I really really miss you
 I miss you all through the night

You're so far away
 I need you tonight
 To hold and to kiss you
 Oh my dear I miss you tonight
 Oh my belo horizonte
 You're the only love for me
 Oh belo horizonte
 You're the only one I see.
 Oh belo horizonte
 Please come back
 My heart cries belo belo
 You're the only one for me
