

Dido - Mary's In India

Tom: Bb
Intro: Bb

Bb
Danny is lonely 'cos
Mary's in India now Eb
Bb She said she'd call but that was three weeks ago Eb
Bb She left all her things
Well, her books and her letters from him Eb
Bb As the sun rises on Mary, it sets on him F Eb

(chorus)
Bb And just dance, and just drink F
And just see the things Eb
F I'll probably never get the chance to see Bb

Bb Danny's not eating, he's drinking and sleeping in Eb
Bb I saw him last night at a party, he's definitely thin Eb
Bb He says he's happy, he looked pretty good

But I think Eb
Bb That as the sun rises on Mary, it sets on him F Eb

(chorus)

Bb Danny came over last night and I cooked for him Eb
Bb We talked about you, Mary, and how much we loved you
Eb still
Bb He told me he's packed up your books and your letters
Eb and things
Bb But as the sun sets on Mary, it's rising on him F Eb

And we danced, and we drank
And I've seen some things you probably never got the chance to see

Bb Don't worry, Mary
F Cause I'm taking care of Danny Eb
F And he's taking care of me Bb
