

Dillard & Clark - Something's Wrong

Tom: Ab

(forma dos acordes no tom de G)

Capostrate na 1ª casa

Intro: E D Dbm D E D Dbm D E

E D
Hours of joy when I was just a boy

A
And never wrong I knew

E D
Kites of red would fly above my head

A
The birds would sing their song

Dbm
Now something's wrong

A Dbm
Where the Sherwood used to be

A Bm B E D D D
Neon brambles now I can see

E D
Fields of corn on early summer mornings

A
Or late afternoons

E D
Anytime there was a place to find

A
Where life seemed not so soon

Dbm
Now all too soon

A Dbm
Is this where I used to be?

A Bm B E D D D
Still remembering what is me

Dbm B A Dbm
And I won't even try

B A Dbm
To find a reason why

Bm B D
I must live here just to die

(E D A E D A)

Dbm
Now something's wrong

A Dbm
Where the Sherwood used to be

A Bm B E D D D
Neon brambles now I can see

(E D A)

Acordes

