

Dillard & Clark - Through The Morning, Through The Night

Tom: G
Intro: D Am C G

^D
Believe me when I tell you
^C ^G
I will try to understand
^D ^{Am}
Believe me when I tell you
^C
I could never kill a man
^G
But to know that another man's holding you tight
^D ^{Am}
Hurts me, little darling
^C ^G
Through the morning, through the night
^D
The bond has been broken
^C ^G
The promise you gave
^D ^{Am}
The words that were spoken
^C
I can not be your slave
^G
But to know that the trust you had in me is gone
^D ^{Am}
Hurts me, little darling
^C ^G
Through the nighttime, through the dawn
^D
I dreamed just last night

^C ^G
You were there by my side
^D ^{Am}
Your sweet loving tenderness
^C
Easing my pride
^G
But then I awoke dear, and found you not there
^D ^{Am}
It was just my old memory
^C ^G
Of how much I care
^D
Believe me when I tell you
^C ^G
I will try to understand
^D ^{Am}
Believe me when I tell you
^C
I could never kill a man
^G
But to know that another man's holding you tight
^D ^{Am}
Hurts me, little darling
^C ^G
Through the morning, through the night
^D ^{Am}
Yes, it hurts me, little darling
^C ^G
Through the morning, through the night
(D Am C)
(G C G)
