

Dillard & Clark - Through The Morning, Through The Night

Tom: G
Intro: D Am C G

^D
Believe me when I tell you
^C I will try to understand ^G
^D Believe me when I tell you ^{Am}
^C I could never kill a man
^G
But to know that another man's holding you tight
^D Hurts me, little darling ^{Am}
^C Through the morning, through the night ^G

^D
The bond has been broken
^C The promise you gave ^G
^D The words that were spoken ^{Am}
^C I can not be your slave
^G
But to know that the trust you had in me is gone
^D Hurts me, little darling ^{Am}
^C Through the nighttime, through the dawn ^G

^D
I dreamed just last night

^C You were there by my side ^G
^D Your sweet loving tenderness ^{Am}
^C Easing my pride
^G
But then I awoke dear, and found you not there
^D It was just my old memory ^{Am}
^C Of how much I care ^G

^D
Believe me when I tell you
^C I will try to understand ^G
^D Believe me when I tell you ^{Am}
^C I could never kill a man
^G
But to know that another man's holding you tight
^D Hurts me, little darling ^{Am}
^C Through the morning, through the night ^G

^D Yes, it hurts me, little darling ^{Am}
^C Through the morning, through the night ^G

(D Am C)
(G C G)

Acordes

