Dillard & Clark - Through The Morning, Through The Night

Tom: G Intro: D Am C G D Believe me when I tell you С G I will try to understand D Am Believe me when I tell you I could never kill a man G But to know that another man's holding you tight Am D D Am Hurts me, little darling С Through the morning, through the night D The bond has been broken G C The promise you gave D Am The words that were spoken I can not be your slave G But to know that the trust you had in me is gone Am D Am Hurts me, little darling С G Through the nightime, through the dawn D

I dreamed just last night

Acordes

G You were there by my side D Am Your sweet loving tenderness С Easing my pride G But then I awoke dear, and found you not there D Am It was just my old memory C G Of how much I care D Believe me when I tell you С G I will try to understand D Am Believe me when I tell you С I could never kill a man G But to know that another man's holding you tight Am D Am Hurts me, little darling С G Through the morning, through the night D Am Yes, it hurts me, little darling С Through the morning, through the night (DAmC) (GCG)