

Dimash Kudaibergen / Kudaibergenov - When I've Got You

tom: [Intro] Fm

Fm Making my way
Way down south to the river
Been lost for days
'Cause I'm looking for freedom
There's nothing but chains around me
But I won't be broken
'Cause I'm gonna fight this time
Fight every moment
Not gonna lie
It hurts this time
'Cause I am feeling
Alone on this side
Not gonna lie
I come back to life
When I've got you
You are my gateway to heaven
If I ever knew in my life
My love, oh, my baby
You are the best thing to happen
I've got an angel down here
Angel right here
Watching every single
Angel right here
Watching every single

Thing and every little
Step that I take
You make it all worth it baby
Finding my place
Just a man in a man's world
Making a name
Ain't easy these days
But when I come home
To your sweet love
You're my slice of heaven
I've got my ride or die
In my arms all night
Not gonna lie
I come back to life
When I've got you
You are my gateway to heaven
If I ever knew in my life
My love, oh, my baby
You are the best thing to happen
I've got an angel down here
Angel right here
Watching every single
Thing and every little
Step that I take
