

Dinah Washington - A Rockin Good Way To Mess Around And Fall In Love

'Cause that's a rockin' good way (That's a rockin' good way)
                            tom:
                                                                Yes, that's a rockin' good way (That's a rockin' good way)
                                                                That's a rockin' good way to mess around and fall in love
If you're gonna give me good kisses like that
Honey, don'tcha know i'm gonna give 'em right back
                                                                (Don't mess around, don't mess around)
That's a kissin' good way (That's a kissin' good way)
                                                               Well, you know you called me on the phone
Ahh, that's a kissin' good way (That's a kissin' good way)
                                                               And just because I was alone
Now, that's a kissin' good way to mess around and fall in love
                                                                You came around a-wooin'
(Don't mess around, don't mess around)
                                                                You better ask somebody if you don't know what you're doin'
If you're gonna start out by huggin' me tight
                                                               Mmm, now that you've kissed me and rocked my soul
Don't mess around, just a-hug me right
                                                                Don't come around knockin' rock 'n' roll
'Cause that's a huggin' good way (That's a huggin' good way)
                                                                That's a rockin' good way (That's a rockin' good way)
Brook, that's a huggin' good way (That's a huggin' good way)
                                                                Dinah, that's a rockin' good way (That's a rockin' good way)
That's a huggin' good way to mess around and fall in love
                                                                That's a rockin' good way to mess around and fall in love
(Don't mess around, don't mess around)
                                                                You better know it baby, it's a rockin' good way
Ya know you called me on the phone
                                                               And I loved to rock, how 'bout you?
And just because I was alone
                                                               Ahh, baby, you got what it takes
Yes, you came around wooin'
                                                               Ain't that somethin'? you dig the rock
Ahh, you'd better ask somebody
                                                               I say cool stay out of my spot oh yeah
If you don't know what you're doin'
                                                               Alright oh yeah, I like the spot, don't you know?
Now you kissed me and you rocked my soul
                                                               Alright alright you got it man
And don't come around knockin' rock 'n' roll
