

Dire Straits - Angel of mercy

Tom: G

Well there's a Peter Pan moon, sheherd's delight
 I got the dragon at noon, yes and I won the fight
 Now i want my reward in heaven tonight, just like you promised
 Angel of mercy you'll come to no harm
 Angel of mercy, there's no need for alarm
 The knight in his armour wants a night in your arms
 You know he's honest

Angel of mercy, angel delight, give me my reward in heaven tonight
 And if I give up my sword, won't you give me the right
 Sweet angel

Well now it's too late for talkin', we can talk later on
 Let the saxophone play us till the Chorus of dawn
 And I need is a little oblivion, you don't need protection
 Well now here come the moonlight down on your bed
 Angel of mercy let your heart rule your head
 I don't want your money, I want you instead
 Don't need rejection yeah

Angel of mercy, angel delight, give me my reward in heaven tonight
 And if I give up my sword, won't you give me the right
 Angel of mercy, give me heaven tonight

Well, if you cross your heart
 And spit and swear upon the grave of your mother
 You gotta get into it, You gotta tell me that I'm more than a lower

(Solo over verse)

Yeah angel of mercy, angel delight
 A|-give me my reward in heaven tonight
 And if I give up my sword, won't you give me the right
 Angel of mercy, give me heaven tonight

(Solo over Chorus)

Yeah angel of mercy, angel delight
 A|-give me my reward in heaven tonight
 And if I give up my sword, won't you give me the right
 Angel of mercy, give me heaven tonight

Yeah angel of mercy, angel delight
 A|-give me my reward in heaven tonight
 And if I give up my sword, won't you give me the right
 Angel of mercy, give me heaven tonight
