G
I wish I could read the pages of my destiny

D
Bm A G
Cause every now and then I get my broken heart shot down, in misery

Bm A
But then you step into this tale of insanity

G
And turn the key into this heart of stone

A
And to this day I can't believe

Bm
And who could tell that you would be

G
Sleeping on this water bed next to me

D
I see you

G
And I can't help but feel alive

Bm
And I can't tell no wrong from right

G
Cause you turn my world upside down

D
And I can't deny it's true

G
It all can happen at first sight

Bm
A story like that you just can't write

G
And I can't hold that silly smile

D
Every time I think about you

G
You're the one behind my best lines of melody

D
Bm A G
Girl you're my true inspiration when I'm feeling down, oh so down

Bm
When you go and put your heart away for far so long

G
