

Dispatch - Steeples

Tom: D
Intro: Gb G Gb Gb G
Gb G Gb G Gb

Gb G I heard a story about a boy,
Gb Gb G who was swept off the deck
Gb G The sweeping tide swept the sea
Gb G Gb over his neck
Gb G But it did end there
Gb Gb G the boy began to swim
Gb G and dared to the sea
Gb G Gb that dared to invade him

Refrão:
Bm Gb G D
Did you ever want to know me?
Did you ever feel like you could?
And did you ever want to know me?
Did you ever feel like i could?
Its a silent steeple that carries us down
its a silent steeple-whoa oh whoa

( Gb G Gb Gb G )

( Gb G Gb G Gb )

Gb G But the sea did not
Gb Gb G so much as reply

Gb G So the boy yelled to the ships
Gb G Gb

that were faded to die
Gb G Gb Gb G
Red sky at night, sailors take delight
red sky in the morning sailors take warning

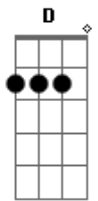

Bm Gb G D
Did you ever want to know me?
Did you ever feel like you could?
And did you ever want to know me?
Did you ever feel like i could?
Its a silent steeple that carries us down
its a silent steeple-whoa oh whoa

Sail on, take it back. sail on take it back.....

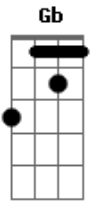

Bm Gb G D
And we were going with the wind in our hair and we didnt want to go back 'cause if we did well we would not care
If we all were to die now,well it wouldnt be that bad
Because that boy in the wave said he'd give us everything everything he had to go on, and trace that scar
like we did ten years before

Bm Gb G D (apenas uma descida por acorde)
Did you ever want to know me?
Did you ever feel like you could?
And did you ever want to know me?
Bm Gb G D
Did you ever feel like i could?
Its a silent steeple that carries us down
its a silent steeple-whoa oh whoa

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com