

Dodie Clark - Paint

Tom: F

Chorus:

Bb F C Dm
am I hiding or is this just me
Bb F C C7
am I not allowed to be who I want to be
Bb F A7 Dm
It makes me feel better 'cause pretty I aint
Bb C F
What's wrong with a little bit of paint

Verse:

F Bb B C
am I being looked down upon again
F Bb B C
Cause I'm wearing this lipstick in shade number ten
F Bb B C
YOU LOOK LIKE A PANDA WITH THAT BLACK AROUND YOUR EYES
F
Oh you're completely right It's all part of my disguise

F Bb B C
You wouldn't put down a boy with scars
F Bb B C
From an operation that he had in the past
F Bb B C
He wears baggy jumpers to cover them up
Bb C
He's not too happy in his skin just like us

Chorus:

Bb F C Dm
am I hiding or is this just me
Bb F C C7
am I not allowed to be who I want to be
Bb F A7 Dm
It makes me feel better 'cause pretty I aint
Bb C F
What's wrong with a little bit of paint

Verse:

F Bb B C
I can't draw a thing but you could call this art
F Bb B C
Applying blushes doesn't make me a tart
F Bb B C
Don't call her an orange 'cause I think that's unkind
F

If you don't like Lady Gaga that's your problem not mine

F Bb B C
And I'm not saying every face is a canvas
F Bb B C
I'm just saying if you're feeling anxious
F Bb B C
You should be able to wear whatever you choose
F C
And if you think that I'm wrong well - I refuse

Chorus:

Bb F C Dm
am I hiding or is this just me
Bb F C C7
am I not allowed to be who I want to be
Bb F A7 Dm
It makes me feel better 'cause pretty I aint
Bb C F
What's wrong with a little bit of paint

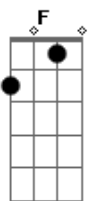

F
There's nothing wrong with a little bit of paint x7
C
There's nothing wrong

Chorus:

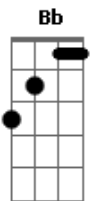

Bb F C Dm
am I hiding or is this just me
Bb F C C7
am I not allowed to be who I want to be
Bb F A7 Dm
It makes me feel better 'cause pretty I aint
Bb C F
What's wrong with a little bit of paint

Bb F C Dm
am I hiding or is this just me
Bb F C C7
am I not allowed to be who I want to be
Bb F A7 Dm
It makes me feel better 'cause pretty I aint
Bb C
What's wrong with a little bit
Bb C
What's wrong with a little bit
Bb C F
What's wrong with a little bit of paint
