

Dolly Parton - Harper Valley P.T.A.

Tom: C

C7 C

I want to tell you all the story `bout a Harper Valley widowed wife, who had a teenage daughter, who attended Harper Valley Junior High.

F

C

Well, her daughter came home one afternoon and didn't even stop to play,

F

G and she said, "Mom I, got a note here from the Harper Valley P.T.A."

C

Well, the note says, "Mrs. Johnson,

C7

you're wearing your dresses way too high.

F

It's been reported you've been drinking and a-running round with men and going wild.

C

Now, we don't believe you ought to be

F

G And it was signed by the "Secretary, Harper Valley P.T.A.?"

C

C7 Well, it happened that the P.T.A. was gonna meet that very afternoon, and, boy, were they surprised when Mrs Johnson wore her mini-skirt into the room.

F

C

And as she walked up to the blackboard,

F

G I can still recall the words she had to say.

C

She said, "I'd like to address this meetin' of the Harper Valley P.T.A."

C

"Now there's Bobby Taylor sittin' there,

C7

and seven times he's asked me for a date,

F

and Mrs Taylor she seems to use a lot of ice whenever he's away.

C

And Mr. Baker, can you tell us, why your secretary had to leave this town?

F

G And shouldn't widow Jones be told

to keep her window shades all pulled completey down."

C

"Now Mr. Harper couldn't be here,

C7

cause he stayed too long at Kelly's Bar again,

F

and if you smell Shirley Thompson's breath you'll find, she's had a little nip of gin.

C

And then you have the nerve to tell me, as a mother, you think that I'm not fit.

F

G Well, this is just a little Peyton Place,

and you're all Harper Valley hypocrites."

C

Now I wouldn't put you on,

C7

because it really did, it happened just this way,

F

G that day my momma socked it to the Harper Valley P.T.A.,
