

Dolly Parton - Mama Say a Prayer

Tom: D

So, Mama, when you pray tonight,
 The bright lights of this city are a pretty sight to see,
 perhaps they're extra pretty to a country girl like me.
 Temptation waits at every turn, and it won't let me be.
 So, Mama, when you pray tonight, say a special prayer for me.
 I miss your tender goodnight kiss of love and understanding, the good night kisses I get now are cruel and so demanding.

So, Mama, when you pray tonight,
 and while you're on your knees,
 Mama, say a special prayer for me.
 The nights get cold and lonely, when you're far away from home,
 and lonely makes it easy for a good girl to go wrong.
 Evil eyes search through the night for lonely girls like me.
 So, Mama, when you pray tonight say a special prayer for me.
