

Dolly Parton - Sweet Music Man

Tom: D

D
Sing a song, sweet music man,
G
cause I won't be there to hold your hand D7
G
like I used to , I'm through with you. D
A
You're a heck of a singer, and a powerful man,
D
but you surround yourself with people who demand A7
D
so little of you.

D
You touched my soul with your beautiful song,
D7
you even had me singin` along D
G right with you. You said, "I need you!" D
A
Then you changed the words and added harmony, then you sang the song you had written for me, D
D
to someone new.

G A
Oh, and nobody sings a love song quite like you do, A
G A
oh, and nobody else can make me sing along. A
D Nobody else can make me see Bm
D Bm
things are right when I know they're wrong,
D A
nobody sings a love song quite like you. D

D
Sing your song, sweet music man,
D7
travel the world with your six-piece band D
G
that does for you what you tell them too. D
A
And you try to stay on with this song you've sung, A7
D
to so many people who all demand to come back on you.

D
Sing your song, sad music man,
D7
makin` you live in the one-night stands D
G
that prove for you, they don't mean to. D
A
You're still a heck of a singer but a broken man, A7
D
you keep on looking for one last band to sing to.

G A
Oh, and nobody sings a love song quite like you do, A
G A
oh, and nobody else can make me sing along. A
D Nobody else can make me see Bm
Eb Bm
things are right when they're wrong with this song, D
D A
nobody sings a love song quite like you. D
Eb A D
Sing your song, sweet music man, I believe in you. D
