

Don McLean - Bronco Bills Lament

tom:

G

[Primeira Parte]

I coulda been most anything I put my mind to be
 But a cowboy's life was the only life for me
 It's a strong man's occupation ridin' herd and livin' free
 But strong men often fail
 Where shrewd men can prevail
 I'm an old man now with nothin' left to say
 But oh god how I worked my youth away

[Segunda Parte]

Well you may not recognize my face, I used to be a star
 A cowboy hero known both near and far
 I perched upon a silver mount and sang with my guitar
 But the studio of course, owned my saddle and my horse
 But that six-gun on the wall belongs to me
 Oh god I can't live a memory

[Terceira Parte]

You know I'd like to put my finger on that trigger once again
 And point that gun at all the prideful men
 All the voyeurs and the lawyers who can pull a fountain pen
 And put you where they choose
 With the language that they use
 But oh god how I worked my youth away

And enslave you till you work your youth away
 Oh god how I worked my youth away

[Ponte]

Whoopee ty yioh whoopee ty yi ay
 One man's work is another man's play
 Oh god how I worked my youth away

[Quarta Parte]

You see I always liked the notion of a cowboy fighting crime
 This photograph was taken in my prime
 I could beat those desperados but there's no sense fightin' time
 But the singin' was a ball
 Cause I'm not musical at all
 I moved my lips to someone else's voice

[Primeira Parte]

I coulda been most anything I put my mind to be
 But a cowboy's life was the only life for me
 It's a strong man's occupation ridin' herd and livin' free
 But strong men often fail
 Where shrewd men can prevail
 But oh god how I worked my youth away
