

Don McLean - Oh My What Shame

They were ^{Am} married ^{(e) G} in the old Church ^F yard ^C
 And they promised to be true to each other ^{Am} ^D
 No matter how hard their lives might be ^{Am} ^A ^{Am} ^E
 But like meteors that fell through moments parallel ^A ^A ^{Am} ^A
 They were soon to cross ^{Am} ^{Am}
 And on different plots of earth they both did fall ^{Am} ^E
 Though their lives had really not been hard at all ^F ^G ^{Am}

Chorus:

Oh my what a shame ^{Am} ^F
 No one's to blame ^{Am} ^C
 It just happened that way ^G
 And there's nothing you can say ^{Am} ^{Am}
 When two people say goodbye ^{Am} ^E
 Oh my...

Instrumental verse:

Am, G, F, C

Am, Am, Am, F, E, Am

Verse:

Two brothers, promised they'd return
 When the war that they were fighting was over
 But only one lived to keep his vow
 And the story I was told said he lived to be quite old
 Before time won out
 Someone asked if he knew what they both fought for
 But he could not recall he had ever been to war

(Chorus)

Bridge:

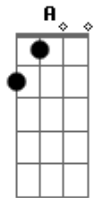

For there's nothing you can say when it's over ^{Am} ^G ^F
 And there's nothing you can do when it's done
 There's no battle you can win ^{Am} ^G
 And there's nothing to begin ^D ^F
 That's not begun ^e

Verse:

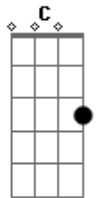

On this moment, I recall your face
 And I wonder if you still think about me
 Occasionally I still think of you
 And I watch the river flow and I know I must let go
 But it's oh so hard
 For the waves are all around my small canoe
 I had always hoped this boat could carry two

(chorus again)
