

Donna Missal - Girl

Tom: D

Girl, you got me all fucked up
I'm in my feelings
Oh girl, I had enough, just stop

[Primeira Parte]

I hate it how I fold up like a flower
When you talk to me so tough
I'm keeping my back upon the wall
All night, I grow tired

[Pré-Refrão]

Now I don't want a problem
Think we all have enough
And I don't have the answers
We could start by backing off

[Refrão]

Girl, you got me all fucked up
I'm in my feelings
Oh girl, I had enough, just stop
We're only human
I know, you don't mean it
Still I take it all so personal
Girl, you got me all fucked up

[Segunda Parte]

I hate it how your eyes glaze over
When I'm talking, na, na, na
Like nothing I say even matters
You're just watching, yeah

[Pré-Refrão]

Now I don't want a problem
But who are you to judge?

And I don't have the answers
We could start by backing off
[Refrão]

Girl, you got me all fucked up
I'm in my feelings
Oh girl, I had enough, just stop
We're only human
I know, you don't mean it
Still I take it all so personal
Girl, you got me all fucked up

[Ponte]

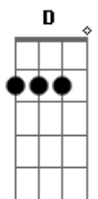

I don't wanna steal your man
I'm not hanging with your friends
I've no one to impress
So why are you upsetting, stressing over nothing?
Hide in my apartment, shaming for my presence
Thinking I did something wrong
But I wouldn't choose this
When women hate on another women
Everybody loses, yeah, hey

[Refrão]

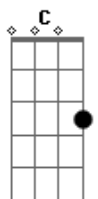

Girl, you got me all fucked up
I'm in my feelings
Oh girl, I had enough, just stop
We're only human
I know, you don't mean it
Still I take it all so personal
Girl, you got me all fucked up
Girl, you got me all fucked up

I'm in my feelings
Oh girl, I had enough, just stop
