

Donna Summer - Love's About To Change My Heart

tom:
 E
 I never needed someone
 'Cos I always led a life of my own
 Never waited for the ring of the phone
 Never had anyone here
 When I got home
 But love's about to change my heart
 I'm waiting for the doorbell to chime
 When I always lived one day at a time
 I thought that I was getting on fine
 Never felt I was alone
 'Til you changed my mind
 Love's about to change my heart
 Could a day be so long
 When I always felt secure and so strong
 And all the time as I went along
 Never thought I would desire
