G

C F C

I dwell in the north in the green country

F G C G

Far I'm here, far I'm here

C F C

And I take to my rest at the end of day,

F G C G C

Whilst o'erhead pretty stars do play

And then I dream along

G

C G

Then I make a song

Am D Am

About everything that I've known and felt

And it makes my sadness melt

Dm

Then I wake up in the funny old kind of day

The rain has gone away,

Dm7 C

Watching the children sing and play

F C

In the garden and the roadway

F C

Up comes a little one singing a song

F C

About a friend she knows called Rosie

F C F C

Off to the greenwood you must go, bring-a me one fine posie

F C G C G F G

All of a sudden I'm light as air, I feel sad as a butterfly.
