

Doris - Flowers In The Morning

tom:

Dm

Dm | Am | Bb | Gm

[Verse 1]

Dm Am Bb Gm
I will bring you flowers in the morning
Dm Am Bb Gm
Wild roses as the sun begins to shine
Bb C F Dm
Sweet perfume and tiny jewel caskets
Bb C A
If I thought you ever changed your mind

Dm Am Bb Gm
I will take you where the music's sweetest
Dm Am Bb Gm
And feed your winter fruits and summer wine
Bb C F Dm
I'll show you things you'd only seen in story books
Bb C A
If I thought you'd ever changed your mind

[Chorus]

D A C B
I will bring you happiness wrapped up in a box and tied with a yellow bow?
G
I will bring you rainbow skies
A Gb
Summer rain to make your garden grow
Bm E A Dm
And in the winter snow, my songs will keep you from the cold

Am | Bb | Gm

[Verse 2]

But what use are flowers in the morning
When the garden they should grow in is not mine
And what use are sunshine when you're crying
And my fallen tears are mingled with the wine?

[Chorus]

D A C B
I will bring you happiness wrapped up in a box and tied with a yellow bow?
G
I will bring you rainbow skies
A Gb
Summer rain to make your garden grow
Bm E A Dm
And in the winter snow, my songs will keep you from the cold

[Final]

Dm Am Bb Gm
I will bring you flowers in the morning
Dm Am Bb Gm
