

Dorothy - Gun In My Hand

```
Tom: C
                                                              Was it for the ledge?
                                                              Was it for the thrill of pushing
  Intro: Am
                                                              My hope to the edge?
Why did love put a gun in my hand?
                                                                        C
                                                              Why did love, why did love
Why did love put a gun in my hand?
                                                                    C
Why did love put a gun in my hand?
                                                              Put a gun in my hand?
In my bed, in my head, in my hand
                                                              Why did love, why did love, why did love
                Am
Was it for redemption?
                                                                     Dm C Am
Was it for revenge?
                                                              Put a gun in my hand
                                                               (why did love, why did love, why did love)
Was it for the bottle?
               Am
Was it for the ledge?
                                                              Put a gun in my hand
Was it for the thrill of pushing
                                                               (why did love, why did love)
My hope to the edge?
                                                                       Dm
                                                                                C
                                                              Why did love put a gun in my hand?
         C
Why did love, why did love
                                                              Woohoo, in my hand
     C Am
Put a gun in my hand?
                                                              Was it for redemption?
                                                              Was it for revenge?
Why did love, why did love
     C Am
                                                              Was it for the bottle?
Put a gun in my hand?
                                                              Was it for the ledge?
                                                              Was it for the thrill of pushing
Why did love put a knife in my heart?
                                                              My hope to the edge?
Why did love open up my scars?
Why did love put a knife in my heart?
                                                              Why did love, why did love
                                                                    F Am
In my bed, in my head, in my heart
                                                              Put a gun in my hand?
                                                              Ooh, in my hand
Was it for redemption?
Was it for revenge?
                                                              Why did love, why did love
Was it for the bottle?
                                                              Put a gun in my hand
```

Acordes

