Downplay - The One Who Laughs Last

Tom: G
Intro: D Bb F

D                           Bb
There's a war inside of me
        G             D
And you watch it silently
                 C
Any idiot could see
        Bb            G              D
That I killed all the hope that I had

                          Bb
There's a war inside of me
        G             D
Burning red and honestly
                  C
And I wave it constantly
       Bb         G          D
Like a flag like a flag like a flag

F                     Bb
His knife that's in my back
G             D
Keeps twisting
C            Bb   F
Anxiety attacks

             D
This is a battleground
                 F
I'm caught in the crossfire
               Bb
My words are weaponry
               G
And I'm waiting patiently
              D
You'll win the battle now
                 F
But I will return the fire
                 Bb
'Cause I'd crawl on broken glass
             G
To be the one who laughs last

D Bb G (2x)

D                           Bb
You're advancing mercilessly
        G             D
Unprovoked and needlessly
                       C
And I'll march you into the sea
           Bb       G         D
Just to watch you drown in the end

D                         Bb
I am used to these black eyes,
        G             D
To be bruised, antagonized
                     C       Bb            G           D
But it overwhelms my mind to believe that I called you a friend

F                     Bb
His knife that's in my back
G             D
Keeps twisting
C            Bb   F
Anxiety attacks

             D
This is a battleground

                          F
I'm caught in the crossfire
               Bb
My words are weaponry
               G
And I'm waiting patiently
              D
You'll win the battle now
                 F
But I will return the fire
                 Bb
'Cause I'd crawl on broken glass
             G
To be the one

             D
This is a battleground
                 F
I'm caught in the crossfire
               Bb
My words are weaponry
               G
And I'm waiting patiently
              D
You'll win the battle now
                 F
But I will return the fire
                 Bb
'Cause I'd crawl on broken glass
             G
To be the one who laughs last

Bb        G           D
Down the trenches I will go
Bb        G           D
Fight the armies on my own
Bb   C    F
I alone

D Bb G

             D
This is a battleground
                 F
I'm caught in the crossfire
               Bb
My words are weaponry
               G
And I'm waiting patiently
              D
You'll win the battle now
                 F
But I will return the fire
                 Bb
'Cause I'd crawl on broken glass
             G
To be the one

             D
This is a battleground
                 F
I'm caught in the crossfire
               Bb
My words are weaponry
               G
And I'm waiting patiently
              D
You'll win the battle now
                 F
But I will return the fire
                 Bb
'Cause I'd crawl on broken glass
             G
To be the one who laughs last
